WCASA & WCADV Legislative Advocacy Day

When: March 27, 2013
Where: Concorse Hotel and State Capitol, Madison

The Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault (WCASA) and the Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence (WCADV) Legislative Advocacy Day is an opportunity for individuals and organizations who have an interest in public policy and funding for victim services to have their voices heard. Registrants can become more familiar with current public policy issues that affect victims, survivors and their children, and educate legislators about victim services and policy priorities for victims and survivors of DV and SA.

Legislative Advocacy Day is an opportunity for individuals and organizations who have an interest in public policy and funding for victim services to have their voices heard. Registrants for this event can receive information and assistance from WCADV and WCASA to: become more familiar with current public policy issues that affect victims, survivors and their children; and educate legislators about victim services and policy priorities for victims and survivors of DV and SA.

Before you register, please open the Informational Flyer below. It includes a link to registration and links to the State Assembly and Senate Directories.

About registration: You may register as an individual or a group. Some questions may not apply to you. We will ask your name and contact information, names of legislators, program affiliation and names of those in your group. We will also ask about your need for assistance with costs associated with participating.
