

All End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin (WCADV) Events

Go to: Special Events • End Abuse Trainings & Networking Meetings • Recorded Webinars • Other Events and Training

Look for training details and registration materials six to eight weeks before each event.

Webinars Demystified

Print End Abuse WI Events listing

WE LEAD (Wisconsin Empowered! Leadership Enrichment and Ally Development) 2015-2016

May 28 & 29, 2015
Madison

WE LEAD is a yearlong leadership academy which focuses on building new voices of leadership within the movement to end domestic and sexual violence by providing hands-on leadership development opportunities for survivors of violence and/or people from Wisconsin's underserved or under-represented communities. This is the first scheduled session for the 2015-2016 academy.

Details

Day of Networking, Western Region

June 12, 2015
La Crosse

The Day of Networking is just for advocates from domestic abuse and sexual assault organizations to attend, free of charge. Join End Abuse staff Sara Krall and Cody Warner from 10 AM to 3 PM to learn and network with your colleagues. In the morning we'll focus on youth resiliency. We'll break for lunch and attend smaller breakout sessions in the afternoon. See Details below, and RSVP!

Details

Statewide SART & CCR Conference

Tuesday, June 16
Holiday Inn, Rothschild

This full day conference will bring together multidisciplinary teams from around the state to both network with one another and learn about innovative collaborative efforts to address victim safety and perpetrator accountability. Are you part of a multidisciplinary team (SART or CCR) in your community? Your team will benefit the most when two or more members attend!

See Details for more information and registration. Register by June 8!

Details

New Directors U: Mission- and Survivor-Centered Services

June 18, 2015
Madison

This is the fifth session of New Director U, an ongoing program for 14 new directors of Wisconsin domestic abuse organizations. Together they are working to sustain each other in building and maintaining supportive, accepting environments that are committed to safety and well-being for all victims and their children. Each month, participants focus on strengthening a different area of skill and knowledge that is needed to direct a fully functioning organization. (The application period has ended and participants are completing in the program.)

Details

Jurisdiction: Obtaining a Restraining Order When Abuse Crosses State Lines

June 19th, 2015 from 1:00-2:00 PM
Webinar

End Abuse's Tess Meurer, Director of Justice Systems and Tony Gibart, Public Policy Director will discuss the components which allow courts to have authority to hear a case: subject matter jurisdiction, personal jurisdiction and venue. They will also discuss the recently passed WI 2015 Act 4 which extends authority of WI courts to have personal jurisdiction in cases where abuse crosses state lines. Finally, they will give helpful examples of how new personal jurisdiction law (Act 4) applies in interstate abuse cases. See Details to register.

Details

Reimagine: The 19th Annual Leadership Institute: An Advocate & Activist of Color Conference

9 AM ? 5 PM on Thursday, June 25th and 9 AM ? 3 PM on Friday, June 26th
Holiday Inn Hotel and Suites Madison West. 1109 Fourier Drive, Madison, WI 53717

This annual conference is by and for advocates & activists & of color in Wisconsin. It is a safe space for folks that identify as people of color, that work, volunteer, intern in domestic violence, sexual assault, or similar fields of gender-based violence work.

Details

The Status of Same-Sex Marriage in Wisconsin After Obergerfell v. Hodges

July 15 from 11:00 AM-12:00 PM
Webinar

Join Attorney Chris Krimmer to consider the current status of same-sex marriage in WI, including a discussion of this summer's U.S. Supreme Court decision in which the right of same-sex couples to marry will be affirmed, or the door may be opened for WI's ban on same-sex marriage to be reinstated. The webinar will also address unique aspects of divorce for gay and lesbian couples who married, and how to apply various family law statutes in the context of same-sex marriage, such as those involving adoptions and the children born during marriage. See Details to register.

Details

New Directors U: Legal Issues for Domestic and Sexual Violence Programs

Thursday, July 16, 2015
Madison

This is the sixth session of New Director U, an ongoing program for a small group of new directors of Wisconsin domestic abuse and dual organizations. Together they are working to sustain each other in building and maintaining supportive, accepting environments that are committed to safety and well-being for all victims and their children. Each month, participants focus on strengthening a different area of skill and knowledge that is needed to direct a fully functioning organization. (The application period has ended and participants are completing the program.)

Details

Northern Training

Tuesday, July 21 & Wednesday, July 22, 2015
Danbury

Each year, American Indians Against Abuse (AIAA), End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin and WCASA present annual training for rural and tribal programs. This training was designed for staff of Wisconsin rural and tribal domestic and sexual abuse programs. Advocates of all experience levels are welcome.

Details

Day of Networking, Southeastern Region

July 2015, date TBA
Southeastern Wisconsin

The Day of Networking is just for advocates from domestic abuse and sexual assault organizations to attend, free of charge, from 10 AM to 3 PM. It's all about learning and networking with your colleagues. In the morning we'll have a large group learning opportunity. We'll break for lunch and attend smaller breakout sessions in the afternoon. Details will be posted soon!

Details

WE LEAD (Wisconsin Empowered! Leadership Enrichment and Ally Development) 2015-2016

July 30 & 31, 2015
Madison

WE LEAD is a yearlong leadership academy which focuses on building new voices of leadership within the movement to end domestic and sexual violence by providing hands-on leadership development opportunities for survivors of violence and/or people from Wisconsin's underserved or under-represented communities. This is the second scheduled session for the 2015-2016 academy.

Details

Advanced Advocacy Training: Mental Health and Emerging Issues for Advocates and Survivors

Tuesday, August 11, 2015
Wausau

How can we best assist survivors who are experiencing the mental health consequences of domestic abuse, and who are also dealing with a mental illness? Join us to learn strategies for helping those who have significant mental health needs to find safety and social support, and special guest Rachel White Domain (National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma and Mental Health) to learn how to apply trauma-informed principles specifically to your legal advocacy work with survivors. Details and registration coming soon!

Details

Advanced Advocacy Training: Mental Health and Emerging Issues for Advocates and Survivors

Tuesday, August 18, 2015
Madison

How can we best assist survivors who are experiencing the mental health consequences of domestic abuse, and who are also dealing with a mental illness? Join Amy Judy and Diane Wolff to learn strategies for helping those who have significant mental health needs to find safety and social support, and special guest Rachel White Domain (National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma and Mental Health) to learn how to apply trauma-informed principles specifically to your legal advocacy work with survivors. Details and registration coming soon!

Details

New Directors U: You're the Supervisor. Now What?

Tuesday, August 25 & Wednesday, August 26, 2015
Madison

This is the seventh session of New Director U, an ongoing program for a small group of new directors of Wisconsin domestic abuse and dual organizations. Together they are working to sustain each other in building and maintaining supportive, accepting environments that are committed to safety and well-being for all victims and their children. Each month, participants focus on strengthening a different area of skill and knowledge that is needed to direct a fully functioning organization. (The application period has ended and participants are completing the program.)

Details

AIAA, End Abuse, and WCASA Fall Statewide Directors Meeting

Wednesday, September 16 & Thursday, September 17, 2015
Madison

Directors of WI tribal, non-tribal, domestic violence and dual programs attend this semiannual meeting to share and learn from each other. End Abuse co-sponsors the meeting with American Indians Against Abuse (AIAA) and the WI Coalition Against Sexual Assault (WCASA). Details and registration will be available in July.

Details

10th Annual Together We Can End Domestic Violence Luncheon Fundraiser

09/15/2015
Monona Terrace & Convention Center in Madison WI

Save the Date!

Mark your calendar and plan to join us for

End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin's 10th Annual Together We Can End Domestic Violence Luncheon

Tuesday, September 15, 2015

Monona Terrace and Convention Center

11:30 am-1:00 pm

More information coming soon.

Details

WE LEAD (Wisconsin Empowered! Leadership Enrichment and Ally Development) 2015-2016

September 17 & 18, 2015
Madison

WE LEAD is a yearlong leadership academy which focuses on building new voices of leadership within the movement to end domestic and sexual violence by providing hands-on leadership development opportunities for survivors of violence and/or people from Wisconsin's underserved or under-represented communities. This is the third scheduled session for the 2015-2016 academy.

Details

New Directors U - Your Voice in the Movement: Working with Legislators and Media

Thursday, October 15 & Friday, October 16, 2015
TBD

This is the eighth session of New Director U, an ongoing program for a small group of new directors of Wisconsin domestic abuse and dual organizations. Together they are working to sustain each other in building and maintaining supportive, accepting environments that are committed to safety and well-being for all victims and their children. Each month, participants focus on strengthening a different area of skill and knowledge that is needed to direct a fully functioning organization. (The application period has ended and participants are completing the program.)

Details

New Directors U - Community Engagement, Relationship Building, & CCRs

Thursday, November 19, 2015
TBD

This is the ninth session of New Director U, an ongoing program for a small group of new directors of Wisconsin domestic abuse and dual organizations. Together they are working to sustain each other in building and maintaining supportive, accepting environments that are committed to safety and well-being for all victims and their children. Each month, participants focus on strengthening a different area of skill and knowledge that is needed to direct a fully functioning organization. (The application period has ended and participants are completing the program.)

Details

WE LEAD (Wisconsin Empowered! Leadership Enrichment and Ally Development) 2015-2016

November 19 & 20, 2015
Madison

WE LEAD is a yearlong leadership academy which focuses on building new voices of leadership within the movement to end domestic and sexual violence by providing hands-on leadership development opportunities for survivors of violence and/or people from Wisconsin's underserved or under-represented communities. This is the fifth scheduled session for the 2015-2016 academy.

Details

Day of Networking, Northeastern Region

November 2015, date TBA
Northeastern Wisconsin

The Day of Networking is just for advocates from domestic abuse and sexual assault organizations to attend, free of charge, from 10 AM to 3 PM. It's all about learning and networking with your colleagues. In the morning we'll have a large group learning opportunity. We'll break for lunch and attend smaller breakout sessions in the afternoon. Details will be posted soon!

Details

New Directors U: The Year in Review

Thursday, December 10, 2015
TBD

This is the tenth and final session of the 2015 New Director U, a year-long program for a small group of new directors of Wisconsin domestic abuse and dual organizations. Together they are working to sustain each other in building and maintaining supportive, accepting environments that are committed to safety and well-being for all victims and their children. Each month, participants focus on strengthening a different area of skill and knowledge that is needed to direct a fully functioning organization.

Details

Printer-friendly listing

Source URL (retrieved on 05/28/2015 - 12:54am): <http://wcadv.org/content/events/end-domestic-abuse-wisconsins-8th-annual-together-we-can-end-domestic-violence-lunche>