

Health Systems/Domestic Violence Train the Trainers

When: Friday, November 2, 2012

Where: Fox Valley Technical College, Appleton

Advocates: Join WI Health Systems Educator Rene Firari-Will and WCADV Aging and Disabilities Specialist CJ Doxtater to gain the skills and resources you need to reach out to local health care providers. Learn how to educate health care professionals about: domestic violence basics; how to safely and effectively screen for domestic violence; what to do when domestic violence is present; and practical issues such as reporting requirements.

November 2, 10 AM-4 PM

(Pick up materials and coffee from 9:30-10 AM.)

At this event, participants will:

- Acquire education tools, including a Power Point Presentation, for future use
- Discuss Health Care Reporting Requirements
- Gain the knowledge, skills and resources needed to educate local health systems professionals about: domestic violence basics; documentation; how to safely and effectively screen for domestic violence

Presenters:

Rene Firari Will, WCADV Health Care Consultant

CJ Doxtater, WCADV Aging and Disability Specialist

Registration: The fee is $10 for WCADV members, $15 for non-members, which includes a box lunch and training materials.

There is a block of rooms at the state rate ($70 per night single occupancy and $90 per night double occupancy) set aside for November 1 at the Comfort Suites Appleton Airport (link to hotel) about 1.5 miles from the Fox Valley Tech School. If you need lodging call 920-730-3800 no later than October 16 and request a room from the WCADV Training block.

Link below to more information and registration. Or click here to register now.

 Flyer&Reg\_info.pdf

---

Source URL (retrieved on 01/28/2015 - 3:13am): <http://wcadv.org/content/events/health-systemsdomestic-violence-train-trainers>