

Creating Accessible, Culturally Relevant, Domestic Violence- & Trauma-Informed Services and Organizations: Agency Self-Assessment Tool and Process: Part II

Is this a DVAM Event?: No

Go live:

May 13, 2013

When: June 12, 2013 | 2:00 ? 3:30pm (CST)

Where: Webinar

From the National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma and Mental Health:

This 2-part webinar will move participants through a self-assessment and planning process for creating accessible, culturally relevant, domestic violence- and trauma-informed (ACDVTI) services and organizations. Part I will provide an overview of the key elements of the ACDVTI Self Reflection Tool and offer guidance on preparing for and engaging in a reflective agency self-assessment process. Part II will focus on how to apply the information gathered during the self-assessment to set priorities, create a tailored plan, and begin to implement changes within your organization.

For more information about this webinar, contact Jen Curley via email by clicking this link or via phone at 312-726-7020 or 312-726-4110 (TTY).

Source URL (retrieved on 01/31/2015 - 10:08am): <http://wcadv.org/content/events/other/creating-accessible-culturally-relevant-domestic-violence-trauma-informed-servi>