

Culture and Inclusion Within the Context of Trauma-Informed Domestic Violence Services and Organizations

Is this a DVAM Event?: No

Go live:

May 13, 2013

When: May 29, 2013 | 2:00 ? 3:30 pm (CST)

Where: Webinar

From the National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma and Mental Health:

Cathy Cave, Co-Founder, Inspired Vision Consulting Senior Training Consultant National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma & Mental Health
Terri Pease, PhD Senior Training Consultant National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma & Mental Health Culture can determine if and how each person finds our environments, services, and supports to be welcoming, inclusive, helpful, and safe. This webinar will consider strategies to create welcoming and inclusive environments and relationships with a focus on cultural attunement as a core component of trauma-informed domestic violence advocacy.

To register for this webinar go to: <http://ncdvtmh.webex.com> (This webinar series is free of charge, and this webinar will be captioned.)

For more information about this webinar, contact Jen Curley via email by clicking this link or via phone at 312-726-7020 or 312-726-4110 (TTY).

Source URL (retrieved on 01/26/2015 - 2:30pm): <http://wcadv.org/content/events/other/culture-and-inclusion-within-context-trauma-informed-domestic-violence-services>