

Tax Protections for Domestic Abuse Survivors

When: February 10 from 1:00-2:00 PM

Where: Webinar

Join Morgan Young, Immigration & Poverty Law Attorney, for this timely discussion about tax protections for domestic abuse survivors. Topics covered will include various tax credits, specific provisions for domestic abuse survivors, claiming children as dependents during family law disputes, and tax ramifications of the Affordable Care Act. We'll reserve time at the end for questions and answers. Click on details for more information and to register.

Join Morgan Young, Immigration & Poverty Law Attorney, for this timely discussion about tax protections for domestic abuse survivors. Topics covered will include various tax credits, specific provisions for domestic abuse survivors, claiming children as dependents during family law disputes, and tax ramifications of the Affordable Care Act. We'll reserve time at the end of the hour for questions and answers on the current topic or any legal topic of concern to victim advocates.

Every month in 2014, End Abuse legal staff Tess Meuer or Morgan Young will highlight a current legal issue or trend for advocates in WI. We welcome you on the second Monday of each month for TESS Talks: legal information worth sharing or Mondays with Morgan. Join us for this monthly series!

To register for this webinar CLICK HERE .

Source URL (retrieved on 01/30/2015 - 10:59am): <http://wcadv.org/content/events/tax-protections-domestic-abuse-survivors>