

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month!

Here is a list of resources and links for Domestic Violence Awareness Month 2013.

Facebook and Twitter

Don't forget to follow End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin on Facebook and Twitter , especially during DVAM. We'll be sharing DVAM-related events, stories and media throughout October.

Wisconsin Domestic Violence Homicide Report

Domestic Violence Awareness Month is a time for a number of memorials and awareness building activities in Wisconsin. Many communities use End Abuse's Wisconsin's Domestic Violence Homicide Reports to honor the victims of domestic violence homicide. You can find the 2011 & 2012 Wisconsin Domestic Violence Homicide Report here.

Governor's Proclamation

Domestic Violence Awareness Month is official! Wisconsin Governor Scott Walker has proclaimed this October Domestic Violence Awareness Month in Wisconsin.

The Domestic Violence Awareness Project

The Domestic Violence Awareness Project is a one-stop-shop for Domestic Violence Awareness Month information, ideas and events.

The National Network to End Domestic Violence

The National Network to End Domestic Violence will be releasing a different action each day for Domestic Violence Awareness Month. They call it, "31 Actions for DVAM." Find more information here .

 1013 Domestic Violence Awareness Month Gov Walker.pdf

Source URL (retrieved on 01/29/2015 - 10:18am): <http://wcadv.org/content/resources/DVAM>