

Beyond Abuse Advocate

Employer: Sojourner Family Peace Center

BEYOND ABUSE ADVOCATE Part Time (20 hours/weekly)

Sojourner Family Peace Center is seeking an experienced professional to work as a Beyond Abuse Advocate. The goal of the Beyond Abuse program is to help participants learn to eliminate violent, abusive and controlling behaviors from their relationships; thus contributing to ending the cycle of domestic violence. This position will assist clients with advocacy and case management needs, perform intakes and placements into applicable groups and co-facilitate group sessions in accordance with approved agency program model and curriculum. This position will also maintain accurate client records, document and report client progress and outcomes.

QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor's degree or equivalent in social work, criminal justice, communication, human resources or relevant field; minimum two years professional experience in advocacy, case management, human resources or related field; or a combination of education and experience. Prior experience with curriculum development and/or group facilitation preferred. Knowledge of the domestic violence system through direct work experience preferred. The ability to understand and speak Spanish, fluently, is preferred.
