

Prevention Program Coordinator

Employer: DAIS (Domestic Abuse Intervention Services)

DAIS is seeking a Prevention Program Coordinator to support community organizing and community education efforts toward the primary prevention of dating, domestic, and sexual violence. Partnering with community and school settings and the adults who work in those settings, the Prevention Program Coordinator provides programming to youth on the root causes of domestic violence using a public health model.

A successful candidate will have a four-year college or university degree and have experience working with domestic violence survivors, partnership development, community organizing, training and education, and working with diverse youth populations. Bilingual candidates and individuals of color are encouraged to apply.

Competitive salary and excellent benefits.
