

Workplaces Respond to Domestic and Sexual Violence

golive: January 7, 2013

expires: January 31, 2013

January is National Stalking Awareness Month.

Given the prevalence of stalking in the U.S., employees, co-workers and customers or clients could be affected and require help. Employers and unions play an important role in connecting victims to assistance and addressing the workplace impact of stalking and stalking-related crimes. Go to www.workplacesrespond.org and create a policy, take the quiz, or commit to act!
