Moving Ahead: Financial Empowerment Curriculum

In collaboration with the National Network to End Domestic Violence (NNEDV) the Allstate Foundation developed the "Economics Against Abuse" curriculum to empower survivors concerned about sustainability . It includes financial tools and information that enable survivors of domestic abuse to (1) fully understand their financial circumstances, and (2) engage in short-term and long-term planning to accomplish their personal goals. The curriculum provides:

- Ways to locate and access local, state and national personal safety and financial resources;
- Information on how to protect personal and financial safety in-crisis and post-crisis;
- Strategies for dealing with the misuse of financial records;
- Tools to help people of all incomes and earning power work toward long-term economic empowerment.
