

Wisconsin Medical Society Policy on Domestic Violence

At the April 2008 meeting of its House of Delegates, the Wisconsin Medical Society reviewed and revised its longstanding policy on Domestic Violence. Overall, the revised policy affirms its original policy, first issued in 1994. The new policy clearly de-emphasizes reporting domestic violence and instead lists what it terms the obligations of physicians.

 WMS_Policy_DV_04-08.pdf

Source URL (retrieved on 01/28/2015 - 6:16pm): <http://wcadv.org/wisconsin-medical-society-policy-domestic-violence>